Fontaine's Children's Charity Foundation is holding this fundraising event at the HIGHWOOD GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB. Funds raised at this event will help the foundation continue its work with their street childrens' program in Africa. A presentation by the foundations chairman, Tiffany Fontaine and Moises Arao, founder of Mozambique City Mission and the Street Children's Program, who has travelled from Africa, will take place during the dinner. This informative presentation will set out the goals of the foundation and it's future plans for helping children. For more information, sponsorship, donations or to purchase tickets please call:
